

T: +386 31 251 010
ursa.pipan@sloactive.si
info@sloactive.si
www.sloactive.si

GPS FILE + MAPS (20 €)

TO TRIESTE BY BIKE

Vremski Britof – Bazovica – Trieste – Glinščica Valley – Kozina – Rodik – Vremski Britof (approx 62 km and 780 altitude metres)

Doesn't that sound well? Why bother with traffic roads, expensive and always overcrowded car parks? When you can easily access the fascinating Trieste on bike. On the way to Trieste, you can visit the beautiful and very interesting Divaška cave, which is often and by many compared to the beauty of Škocjan caves. Towards Trieste, enjoy on meandering ride through the colorful Karst landscape all the way to the Italian Bazovica (Basovizza). All coffee lovers will love it here. Treat your selves with delicious cup of Italian coffee wiht some »dolce« and the next few kilometers on bike will be much easier. Trieste is just a few miles away.

From Trieste back to Vremski Britof, the cycle trail takes you along the old Kozina - Trieste railway. You will cycle over the scenic valley of Glinščica (Italian Rosandra). This route was once called by the locals The Way of All Saints, since it linked the places where the railway stations were named after saints.

BEAUTY OF KARST

Vremski Britof – Škocjan caves – surrounding Karst villages – Kozina – Vremski Britof (approx. 42 km and 470 altitude metres)

Only a few countries can boast of the natural phenomenon of exceptional global value. Today you can cycle to the beautiful Škocjan Caves, which have been included in the UNESCO World Heritage List since 1986. If you like, you can visit this spectacular and amazing caves, before you continue cycling around the colourful landscape. The villages of Karst are true »food« for the eyes. Full of historical sights and specialties. On the way are many authentic local inns, where the food is prepared on the basis of centuries-old recipes and a rich restaurant tradition. Perfect stop for a lunch break. The way back to Appartments Jankovi continues through the enchanting Karst settlements, past genuine houses and old stone Karst houses, over lush fields and on grey side-roads.

